ADVERTISING AGENTS.

None others are authorized to solicit Memphis Chamber of Commerce. and General Totten's reasoning and facts [From the Boston Globe. S. R. NILES, M. PETFING LL & Co. .. Boston M. PETTINGILL & Co ... W. SHARPE & Co.,.... .. New York City. im. P. BUWELL & Co. HATES & LOUKE, New York. Philadelphia him so warmly. Adverting to his at- be no mud projected into it by the river, COE. WETMERILL & CO. F. I. DIRBLE & Co..... NASVE, MARCHAND & Co., Louisville. tachment for his bome, and for this city the canal's mouth being fifty miles west DEGOLVER & RICHEN, New Orleans.

mulant qui trans mare currant. He in- further east. sisted, with earnest, simple eloquence, that there was no such country as this— a glowing eulogium upon the present Remittances should be by registered letter, money order, draft, or by express. When othe, the office cannot be responsible. All business communications should be ad- mate so faultless, a river so majestic. the United States, commending in un-The Power's Barksdale, Jackson Miss. He had crossed the ocean, but, as assert- measured terms his personal worth and

A RENVESTER

Sitting, reading idly here, In between the pages come Gleams that shine and disappear Into gioom.

Lines and letter fade away, Yet they leave me not alone; Quiet eyes of stendiast gray Meet my own. And Ctis hardly Fancy's freak Doth so potently avait!) On I see the tender cheek Flush and pale. Everywhere the perfect face Haurts me, thrills me from afar, Shining through thought's interspace Like a star. Ah, I wonder! tell me, dear, Do I over come to you On dream-pinions floating near? To me you do.

Ah, if only I could know ! Who will teach me such an art? Little song, I pray thee, go, Ask her heart. --[Galaxy for July] What is Love?

Lasked my heart what love is! It giveth unswer meet: Fwo souls, and but one thought, Two hearts, but one heat-best.

And what is pure, pure love? When selt is quite forgot.
And when is love the deepest?
When word it uttereth not.

And when is it the richest? When all it has it gives. And what the words it speaketh? Voiceless it loves, it lives,

-[German. The New Currency Act.

upon national banks other than gold ed to the London society, it was needless countrymen." "The time will come." cent. of their circulation in United States notes for the redemption of their ed to Sir Edwin Pearson of this society, and south richest among the nanew currency act. - Washington Chron- international association, having branches tion."

A Votable Exception to a Gen- valley of the Mississippi, were thoroughly zette has information that the czar has sentenced his nephew, Grand Duke Nicholas, who stole his mother's diamonds, to banishment for life to Caucassius, and deprived him of the Cross of St. George bestowed for achievements in the Khiva campaign.

Fiat Justitta.

and ably written. On the subject of consistency it holds the mirror up to many of us who at times have been disposed to complain at the course or policy of that able journal. In this mirror many who all in the constant of the constant of Mistaken Policy-White Leagues Forming in Louislann.

League is sweeping the parish of This can be effectively done.

St. Mary. Two prominent white Re
The river was kept open without difauthor of that extinction, so much to be

After this digression, doll No. 4 was publicans, the backbone of the party in ficulty when Mr. Davis was secretary of regretted. It has been supposed that shown, wearing the next stage of a lady's this parish, joined to-day. Others are war during Pierce's administration. species, like individuals, were doomed underdress. It was a single garment, expected to follow. The line is so closely drawn that they must come over or ly drawn that they must come over or ly drawn that they must come over or take chances with negroes. Todd's proposition meets the approval of the majority of the planters throughout the parish. It is believed they will carry it out.

A Colony of Georgiaus for Nebrass vet solved. But we must act in the mat-Angusta, Atlanta, Ogelthorpe, Louder-ville and Kingston, Georgia, arrived here by risking one-fourth as much as our by ris vesterday and put up at the Southern. The party are in charge of Col. Samuel Echols, agent of the Union Pacific railroad, with whom they left last night on the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern the St. Louis, City and Northern the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern the St. Louis, City and Northern the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern the St. Louis, City and Northern the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern the St. Louis, Country the St. Louis, Country the St. Louis, Country the St. Louis and Country the Count vine and Kingston, Creorgia, arrived here by risking of the attention. He shop-lifting.) the St. Louis, Nansas City and Normerin and Davis tunies the scaling of the ease of these garments, Mrs. Flynt busy. He remained on the rear platform standing, you know;" and with a miserable imperious dame, and it is the ease of these garments, Mrs. Flynt busy. He remained on the rear platform standing, you know;" and with a miserable imperious dame, and it is the ease of these garments, Mrs. Flynt busy. railroad for Nebraska, with a view to set-tling on the railroad lands in the vicinity of Columbus and Grand Island, on the Safest, and certainly most delightful. of Columbus and Grand Island, on the safest, and certainly most delightful. occurs to my mind just now in which clothing to the soles of her feet, while in train was out of sight. Platte river. Columbus is the station He had drifted with the gulf stream off women outrank men completely. So far walking she felt its support as she did no nearest to the Pawnec Indian Reservation.

The colonists number about fifty persons and are composed of farmers, tinsmiths, foundrymen and representatives of the various vocations.—St. Louis Republimeans of elevating the volume of water.

Proposed Siconaion in 1875.

This is not done by contracting the pair lotter, and a more abiding love of country." It is believed that all or nearly all of the alumni, North and South, are cordially in favor of the project. More than this, President Grant is reproted as not only heartily assenting to it, but it is intimated that he will be present in person on the occasion.—Richmond Ensist at the celebration.—Richmond Ensist at the celebration at the celebration at the celebration at the most approved the seat respected from the state Senate during the memorable came twicth of some tends the same thing at the same time at the celebration at the celebratio

HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS honest civil engineer, years ago, said Mr.

VOL. XXXVII. - - NO. 31.

SPEECH

-BEFORE THE-

rope when deserving the unlimited con- sense.

salable. This society is now thoroughly levee-builders.

[From the Memphis Appeal.

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1874.

to exhibit to the wondering audience a

WEEKLY CLARION.

At this point, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe fidence of capitalists. There are three He knew that the river's bottom was declared that she was in a great hurry, great and potent oracles in London constantly uplifted with its banks, by determining the credit of American means of levees, which would be utterty securities—the Trust and Loan company; ruinous if the process were continued. the Foreign Council of boudholders; and The bottom of the river of to-day might affecting the condition and purposes of ness would be measureless. When the Tennessee given the Mississippi Valley so- river is highest and its current swiftest it ciety caused a marked change in the most fills up the channel, only to be deepmarket value of Tennessee securities, ened again when the water falls and seeks He had said to the secretary of the pa- its old channels. The more levees have rent society in London that the financial been extended, the more ruinous and condition of Mississippi might be most wide spread have been the floods. fortunate for tax-payers, since those levy- There are, or were, countless natural ing taxes and issuing bonds in Mississippi drains on both sides of the river that could, by no possibility, make these bonds should never have been closed by the well informed by its correspondents in: Mr Davis said that the people of this leading cities along the Mississippi and country might rely implicitly upon every its tributaries, and no such gross injustice will be done trustworthy and reliable the Mississippi Valley society of London.

quite as serviceable in obstructing fraudulent schemes as in promoting those of honest worth. Bogus stocks based upon the establishment of direct trade between this valley and citizens of honest worth. honest worth. Bogus stocks based upon trade between this valley and citizens of which was sewn bands of unelastic matebogus mines or paper railway lines cannot the old world. Mr. Davis had said this rial for supports, the clothing for the lowbe palmed off upon those who have access to the president of the London society. The books and correspondence of the Mississippi Valley society of London. Of social and personal advantages given those who went from Apperica converged. Treasurer Spinner has issued a call those who went from America commend- and win the undying gratitude of my It happened that he had been present. will be achieved, and when the west Another doll was then shown, intend-scheme of Mr. Eads, and to the Fort

St. Phillips canal, which we have often considered. Mr. Totten, an able and

Davis, had examined and condemned everywhere in Europe as well as in the The Struggle for Existence.

discussed. It was in an interview with All beings are exposed to more or less was separate from the waist, thus sustain- I fear he has much to answer for. members of the society that he had sug-frequent dangers, and are constantly ing the weight of all the clothing from Washington, July 7.—Col. Bris. gested the inauguration of a system of struggling to defend their lives. They the shoulders and upper part of the chest, tow, of Kentucky, now Secretary of the direct trade between England and the have to dread the inclemency of the as in the first instance. Mrs. Flynt then Treasury, has refused to accept the offer valley of the Mississippi. He had shown seasons, and must perish if they fail to showed doll No. 3, which she said was a of a carriage and horses which a friend how the intermediate agency of Atlantic find a sufficiency of food; the herbivorous fully-developed young lady. As it came wished to present him for the use of his wife, who is regarded as the most lady-like and handsomest out of Ken- tained for the same reason by the people need of a victim, deadly battles occur and buttons than the child's garment beof cities and States along the great Amer- for the possession of a place or the con- fore shown; to which question Mrs. Royalists under Lord Feversham, which of cities and States along the great American river. There is no necessity for the ican river. There is no necessity for the intervention of middlemen and middle intervention of middlemen and middle cities now absorbing all profits incident to commercial intercourse between the great standing the perils that incessantly the function of each strap and button, man holding an Ensign's commission valley and the world's commercial capi- threaten the existence of all creatures, showing that while none were useless, under the Duke of Monmouth, and it tal. It is needless to say that British everything works actively to secure the statesmen, merchants and bankers constatesmen, merchants and bankers, conmaintenance of races. That instinct the uses of the wearer. This garment be could show extraordinary feats of for being lost in the streets, or for begging, stand, and consequently. stituting the society in London, approved the uses of the wearer. This garment had no waist-band, but served as a suptree that his life the uses of th readily agreed to furnish three-fourths of tion of their material wants, allows many drawers, and flannel skirt, all the weight stripped, when one end of a halter was they did to inspire the girls with honest During the last two or three years his Fortner, C. W. Hicks, T. I. Hunter the capital required to inaugurate the enterprise, and establish a successful enterprise, and establish a successful violent death vary within the widest insisted on a loose waist, illustrating her reason of his infirmity, comparatively From the Pentris News. steamship line from New Orleans to Livery of the largest vessels possible of the greatest the largest vessels possible of the greatest possible to make a should be built or charged. Berge lines from the steamship line from New Orleans to Livery of the largest vessels possible of the greatest the meaning of the word "loose" by saying the On the outside of this paper we copy and article from our cotemporary of The an article from our cotemporary of The continuous from St. Louis should be of the strongest to fear, is prodigious of the stronge CLARION. It is a very sensible article used in connection with these great sea among the weakest that are doomed to these clothes?" to which the reply was immediately hanged. The space through

A Field for Woman.

irrefragable strength, is a question not

A party excursionists from Columbus, of lished, and the people here must own one-fourth of the property. If we do ter. A steamship line must be estaband west indies, going out of the Cum give any exact figures in the matter—to the waist and hips from pressure, and at from which Dickens had taken a bite. yet had her trial, and who, with tears in huge beard was uncombed and stained From the Farmers Vindicator. of Mexico on the northern, and returning on the southern side of Cuba. There is every advantage of comfort and security in following the southern or gulf stream route in both directions across the At- She may earn more than that—she may point of the shoulder was unnatural; it ish desire for relics, shows that Twain was says the Baltimore Gazette, to have a lantic. Since Mr. Davis's return to earn less; whatever the precise amount should rest where a man's suspenders do. hardly burlesqueing in his essay: "The She, too, had been arrested for theft—it car, and caught the seat on which our the cotton to take deep and strong root of healing the wounds left by the war, or as he phrases it, "that from the sea to New Orleans. He memories of many joys common to them all, and from the grave of all paintul recollections, never to be disturbed by thought, by word, or by deed, there may thought and a more allowed as a source of the contour of the seath of the grament was its "protector," which garment was i Mr. Davis then spoke at length of dif- Maj. J. H. Sloss, member of Congress tion by displaying to the audience a water- he had gone a lady who sat next him said. However, they were well enough car about that time. The man second May 30th will show: "The weather for

DRESS REFORM.

An "Extra Session" of the Wo- series of eight pockets in it, sufficient to man's Club - The Garments that carry quite a wardrobe, besides ordinary the Coming Woman Will Wear. traveling conveniences.

were, he believed, incontrovertible. Of The Woman's Club is just now indus-From the Memphis Appeal.

Mr. Davis began his most instructive all plans, if dredging be not approved, that of Captain John Cowpen is nost triously investigating the dress problem, and endeavoring to find some form of and endeavoring to find some form of costume which shall relieve overburdened femininity of its weight of clothes, and prospect it from bedraggled skirts and prospect it fro triously investigating the dress problem, conversational address by expressing his faultless. He would dispense wholly pleasure on meeting those who greeted with the need for tow-boats; there would and prospect it from bedraggied skirts and dampened ankles. Several members to see and a disposition to sex. If one is a foreigner he must first of wearing apparel and bedding has its and dampened ankles. Several members of the club have experimented for some time in this under its auspices at Free-time in this under its auspices at Free-time in this under its auspices at Free-time in the Chapel for the exhibition of man Place Chape and people, he said culum non animum of the river, which constantly moves such garments as these members or others had devised. It was not a secret affair, none having a soil so exuberant, a cli-chief of the corps of civil engineers of for women were welcomed, but no man could obtain admittance. Reporters ed by the old Roman poet, he never for-scholarly and professional attainments. were unceremoniously excluded, and an got the land of his birth; and, however While this gentleman would persist in artist of Leslie's Illustrated, who endeavdistant, he still drew after him that levee-building, Mr. Davis deems the ored to get in to obtain sketches for "lengthening chain" of which he spoke system an utter, unmixed failure. He his journal, was forbidden to enter. who wrote like an Angel, and talked prefers the diversion of the superabunlike poor Poll. It often happens, con- dant floodtide of the river and its tributhe club, superintended the exhibition, tinued Mr. Davis, that the worthiest en- taries, as Captain Cowden has often exand there was a large attendance, indicaterprises of State and corporations in plained. He has infinite faith in science, ting no little interest in the subject to be the south are wholly discredited in Eu- but even more in practical, common-but desired to see Mrs. Flynt's inventions before taking her leave, and that lady came forward. Not being a reformer, nor a member of the club, Mrs. Flynt are burdened. this society of the Valley of the Mississip-pi of London. By the first two of these water surface of to-day, and when a cre-Tennessee securities were put under the vasse, as would often happen, spent its ed in making herself intelligible, soon ban; but that trustworthy information fury upon the lowlands its destructive- forgetting the peculiarity of her position Her system, she said, applied the same principle to suits for females of all ages, Brown, who is one of the most experited upon the whole of the upper part of per to Mr. Brown, whose pencil at once circulating notes, in accordance with the and all these aims and incidents of the tions, like the Indies, will enrich the natural work and all these aims and incidents of the tions, like the Indies, will enrich the natural work and all these aims and incidents of the tions, like the Indies, will enrich the natural work and all these aims and incidents of the tions, like the Indies, will enrich the natural work and all these aims and incidents of the tions, like the Indies, will enrich the natural work and all these aims and incidents of the tions. ral belt point of which were two rows of buttons, one for hose, under-drawers and claim to run in a never varying groove will see how they themselves have been drawing twelve feet of three thousand at one period it is rare at another, when they button easily, hold several buttonswitched off occasionally, farther than the tons. One of these steamers was tested circumstances become unfavorable; yet holes each, and never cut thread, which the betrothed of this young soldier. CLARION, from the direct line. Justitia in storms in the Mediteranean, and if it has not ceased to be represented, in was also received with applause. Mrs. seaworthy and staunch as represented by some corner of the world. Certainly in this Howe seemed not to be able to recover the scientific Mr. Hirsch, the problem of respect knowledge has been gained by from her surprise that these garments direct trade was already solved, and our exact and very numerous observations. had actually been tested by wearing, discussion of the means of securing a Since the day when the last grand physical and again asked, "Mrs. Flynt have you perfect waterway from New Orleans to perfect waterway from New Orleans to perfect waterway from New Orleans to phenomena were completed on the surreally discarded corsets?" to which the really discarded corsets?" to which the sea was already needless. This fail- the sea was needless. The sea was needless FRANKLIN, LA., July 6.—The White ing, we must still resort to dredging.— appeared. Only some great species have admission at which the audience again sembled at the depot to await the arrival

ish. It is believed they will carry it out.
St. Mary has won a glorious victory.
St. Mary has won a glorious victory.
St. Mary has won a glorious victory.
St. State follow ships may be built and successfully navioccur on our globe

This garment, which includes the British reject that belief, except on the suppose flow grant flow occur on our globe occur on our globe

This garment, which includes the belief, except on the suppose flow grant flow occur on our globe occur on occur A lady of high birth, great personal for a chamber dress, and examined its A lady of high birth, great personal "cut" with much interest. It was in the band of the Stonewall brigade, the band of the Stonewall brigade, the Boston Journal: An amusing incitrammeled by conflicting authorities

The interest of the ladies in Mrs. Flynt's exhibition was such that during the afternoon, she was compelled to explain them [Correspondent of the Graphic. four times, and the last time she was intentions in the hands of those who would supply the demand. Since this exhibition, her residence has been thronged may be found in the course of hair a day if one has the courage and strength to be supply the demand. Since this exhibition, her residence has been thronged another, up stairs and down stairs, two out of use. The old linen is bought by From the summit Times. with visitors eager to see for themselves or three times around the Palais, and the hospitals for lint, and the rags go to Upon visiting the plantation of Mr. the wonderful garments of which their finally to be taken up by a lobbyist, who, the paper-makers and railways; the latter Wallace W. Quin, one and a half miles friends who were at the meeting have told by dint of questioning, becomes convinced use them for cleaning engines. them. More than 1,000 ladies have ex- that you do wish to visit the "Concier- In the house of correction for boys the the finest corn and cotton crops it has amined them, and are hearty in their commendation, and Mrs. Flynt, who has with sufficient authority togive you a pass. retired from her former business, finds herself more sought for than ever before. Such was my experience, and to fortify the remnant of my undertaking, for I course, obliged to work; they make small From the Yazoo Banner. It is evident from the interest taken in her was curious to know the French method chains from gilded copper, lint and string WE are very sorrow to hear that J. J.

by the invitation of some of its members money, who are pinched severely, and Another doll was then shown, intending to represent an older girl. This was provided with a loose waist, at the path.

It is of great importance with this class deranged when about 25 years of age, and the female prisons of the French capital to keep on good terms with this autocrat. If a fashionable woman wants a $1,000 in the Mathson cemetery. He was taken deranged when about 25 years of age, and the female prisons of the French capital to keep on good terms with this autocrat. If a fashionable woman wants a $1,000 in the Mathson cemetery. He was taken deranged when about 25 years of age, and the female prisons of the French capital to keep on good terms with this autocrat. If a fashionable woman wants a $1,000 in the female prisons of the French capital to keep on good terms with this autocrat. If a fashionable woman wants a $1,000 in the female prisons of the French capital to keep on good terms with this autocrat. If a fashionable woman wants a $1,000 in the female prisons of the French capital to keep on good terms with this autocrat. shawl, how delightful is the approving pencil mark! If the latter be averse, flannel skirt, and the other for white Brown has almost broken some hearts skirts and the skirt of the dress, which by refusals of this nature and hence

A Lordly Brute.

After the battle of Sedgmoor-which,

wall Brigade Band.

President Grant arrived in Staunton

Fultz, Maj. Harman, and other citizens went in the car to pay their respects, and in a few minutes the mayor appeared with the president on the rear platform of in this place?"

A Souvenir Extraordinary.

says the Baltimore Gazette, to have a grand re-union of all the graduates of the academy, Federal and ex-Confederate, next June. A resolution has been passed to that effect. The proposition emanants ted from Professor Davies, or Portland, in his address to the alumni of the institution. He made the appeal as a means of health or the proposition. He made the appeal as a means of health or the professor Davies, or Portland, in his address to the alumni of the lady says the Baltimore Gazette, to have a grand re-union of all the graduates of the academy. Federal and ex-Confederate, next June. A resolution has been passed to that effect. The proposition emanants ted from Professor Davies, or Portland, in his address to the alumni of the institution. He made the appeal as a means of health or the professor Davies, of Portland, in his professor Davies, of Portlan mended for traveling, and she proceeded FRENCH WOMEN IN PRISON. the shops. One work-room is furnished with

Female Prisoners

Paris, May 20, 1874.

air full of sunshine, when we passed held good for boys and the opposite good through the Port St. Denis and reached for the girls is what one finds difficult in Crops in the four commanded One fact is beyond all question. You the prison. Although the complete sep- understanding. In the way of reading by the trade of Brookhaven still continue in her interest in her topic. She is a cannot be poor and fashionable at the aration of male and female prisons, and, of one fact is worthy of mention. The li- to improve. With the exception of early rather short, broad, blonde woman, on same time. Fashionabie folks must have course, prisoners, is made sogrand a feature brary from which the boys draw books is corn in some places, the prospects are bet ple black silk skirt, and gray redingote, with black velvet collar, cuffs and buttons —plain enough for a reformer, but in excellent taste. She told the club that were women -a sort of nun regiment, at- ter Scott are in constant demand. The Lee, shot W. T. Patton, who was she had come in to show them her ideas she had come in to show them her ideas of dress reform, and that she would begin at the beginning. This she did by exhibiting a large doll, dressed in clothes adapted to a child just beginning to walk.

The she would be are always living beyond their means. Stewart does a very extensive credit business among such a class, and this debug at large to black and the nowing from prisons, and they are never refused the ventional white head-bands and immense day a sample of the bread, taken up at about 8 miles east of Summit. ventional white head-bands and immense criminals except for punishment. Every shooting occurred at Mrs. Quin's place, day a sample of the bread, taken up at about 8 miles east of Summit.

tice will be done trustworthy and reliable enterprises as in recent years. The utility of the parent society, having trust worthy sources of information, will prove worth the leading idea being to suspend the worth worth the leading idea being to suspend the leading idea being to suspend the leading idea being to suspend the worth the leading idea being to suspend the leading idea being to s open courts planted with trees, balustraded stairways, dormitories full of single A Lumntle for Porty-five Yearsbeds, work-rooms, large eating-room, a pretty chapel for the "sisters" and an ugly one for the prisoners, all cleanly firmaries, dark low passages, eating, ris county, who has been a lunatic for [From the Water Valley Courier sleeping and working rooms, with an forty-five years, has at last paid the debt We are pained to learn, as we do atmosphere that makes a person at once of nature, at the age of seventy-one. He through the Grenada Sentinel of Is ill. What contrast between the splendid died a few days ago, and was twice buried week, of the death of Judge Robert D. marks approbation or refusal. Hence churches, the peerless boulevards, the in the Madison cemetery. He was taken McLean, of that city. We have known > sub-divisions. There is the compartment been attributed by some to a severe cold tleman. for those arrested who await their trial; which he took, and by others to religious | From the Hinds Co., Gazette. that of the tried and condemned who wear excitement. Almost from the first his The regular election for town officers that of the tried and condemned who wear excitement. At the tried and to be at Byram took place on the 9th inst. dress, a coarse white cap that only reaches to the floor, and for a period of the back of the ears, and under of over forty years he has been as naked T. Morrison; Aldermen, E. Lowis, Dr. which the uncut hair is tucked; the com- as when he first came into the world. S. F. Sorsby, E. W. Tucker, T. H. Seay, partment of young girls placed there by their parents for 'correction;" another for girls of the town, and still another for him; besides, he would destroy every fames. E. Hogg was appointed Town old and infirm mendicants. The sub-di- thing he could lay his hands on. For Clerk by the Mayor. visions are made with regard to the ages forty years he was kept in a small apartof the criminals, the children ranging in ment ceiled with boards, furnished with a From the Hinds County Gazette years from seven to sixteen being by them- door, and a place for a window, which was The Brookhaven District Conferences a visitor enters like a lot of school girls. fact that just before he died he seemed to county, and about 64 years of age. They wear a bardened, unimpressible look, return to consciousness, and called an atespecially those under thirty years of age, tendant by name. that was fearfully noticeable. Out of the fourteen hundred I saw was but one who had a fere that could be called by name.

"Oh, no, we know what she was like an infant.

A curious circumstance happened in the death of Maj G. Dudley Moore, had a face that could be called handsome. lowered and the grave nearly filled an at-She was an English woman, and of all tendant called out to stop further proceedings, as the lot was his, and he was unwilled the died of dysentery.

wedding ring on a pretty hand.

world. Because I won't tell who I am, Elizabeth (N. J.) Journal. and am here in France without a passport,

"Oh, that is all nonsense; nobody asks dies declared that it was pretty enough for a chamber dress and examined its -the band of the Stonewall brigade. her shoulders with, "Oh, I couldn't tell dent occurred the other day on one of the or delayed for useless consultation with twenty or thirty sewing machines. They have their hours for promenading in the The Paris Prison of St. Lazare, nave their hours for promenaning in the court-yard, for their breakfast of soup, of Wall Hill, fell dead while following his and their dinner of brown bread, meat plow. and vegetables, and their retiring and ris- (From the Vicksburg Times, ing hours 6 P. M. and 6 A. M. None are The new financial law is a triumph for condemned to solitary confinement. In expansionists, and its approval by the a large building adjoining St. Lazare are President can only be accounted for on garments that the Boston ladies believe in them, and need only the opportunity to accept them, and discard the dragging and draggled over-weights with which they are burdened.

$2 00 PER YEAR.

A Bry Goods Autocrat.

Was curious to know the French method of treating female sinners, I attached a brave and noble-hearted Irish lady to my cause, and we set out for St. Lazare, the one prison for women of all ages and degrees of crime in Paris.

It was a perfect spring day, with the It was a perfect spring day, with the only saving one—the removal from bad influences. Why the one thing is held good for hows and the opposite good.

From the interest taken in her graded copper, intrand string the hair out of which chignons are made which women wear, who never could if they once saw them manufactured. The solitary system is in use for them as being the only saving one—the removal from bad influences. Why the one thing is held good for hows and the opposite good.

From the Boston ladies believe in the hair out of which chignons are made which women wear, who never could if they once saw them manufactured. The solitary system is in use for them as being the only saving one—the removal from bad influences. Why the one thing is held good for hows and the opposite good.

From the Boston ladies believe in the hair out of which chignons are made which women wear, who never could if they once saw them manufactured. The solitary system is in use for them as being the only saving one—the removal from bad influences. We can, imagine the feelings of sorrow that opposite good in the present in the same than J. J. White, Jr., was killed by a mob source which which chignons are made which which chignons are made which which which chignons are made which which which which chignons are made which which when the present in the height promises are the present in t

The prison, enormous in extent, is an random, is sent to the prefect, so he may

AWFUL PATE.

the Grave.

Charles Crowell, of Greenville, in Morclaimed to have experienced a change of our best friends and advisors, but as a

MOVED ON ALL FOURS.

chism, and they attend mass and sing and sew."

"I suppose you know the history of each one, and something of her trials and temptations?"

all this period first by a mother, then by a sister, both of whom were worn out in taking care of him, and latterly a niece (Mrs. Burt) has had charge of him. He had to be washed, cleaned, and fed like plorable than it would be under ordinary plorable than it would be under ordinary put in here for and how long she has to Over a hundred bed-quilts which the is, and has been for several months, hands of affection have made for him absent on a visit to California. - Mrs. L. The prisoners all rise to their feet when have been torn up. It is a remarkable was one of the pioneer settlers of Holmos dedly the most hardened and unregenera-ling a lunatic should be buried by the tive.

He was a gentleman well known throughout this section; and amongst sembled at the depot to await the arrival of the train. The Vindicator says:

Mayor Trout, Rev. Dr. Sears, Judge Mayor Trout, Rev. Dr. Sears, Judge father is a surgeon and my husband is a lot, but no surer remedy could be found as farmer. commercial agent;" and she twirled a for curing their misanthropy than a visit | From the Orphans Banner redding ring on a pretty hand.

to such a person. In justice to his Bro. Joel Towers having resigned the But why do they allow you to be kept friends it should de said that Charles position of Superintendent of the Orphah Crowell, has always had the best of care. Home, Eld. R.N. Hall was elected by the "Oh, they don't know it; I wouldn't The modes now adopted for treating the Board of Trustees to succeed him. which gave three cheers, which the presi- have my friends know I was here for the insane were not in vogue in those days. - The Board has adopted a system of regula-

A Railroad Scene.

you, it was so dreadful! You remember trains from Boston to this city. The cars others. bundles, bandbox and bag were piled Mr. Isaac Roberts, one of the oldest robbers, capable of any crime, and will by thought things very comfortable, as now stands the town of Edwards, in 1826 commit a misdemeanor the moment she they were. "Is that seat occupied, mad- forty-eight years ago; and continuously ten months pass by before they receive trial. If condemned to a term exceeding a year they are sent to New Cal-

MISSISSIPPI

Items of Interest.

From the Meridian Mercury,

Chancellor Christian received his commission yesterday from Acting Governor Davis and took the oath of office. (From the Holly Springs Reporter.

We learn that on Friday last, Dr. Williams, a resident in the neighborhood

A week or ten days since, the sub-contractors and all employees of the V. C. & Y. R. R. struck for payment. The failure of the Company to pay anything has thrown on the charity of our city a large Buried Twice in the Same Grave- number of stout, honest and hard working yard-Strange Proceedings at men, without any means of subsistence God help the poor!

The prison consists of divisions and heart. The cause of his derangement has most worthy and estimable christian gen selves, and the others grouped according-ly. closed in cold weather by a shutter. The will meet at Brookfaven on the 16th of July, and Bishop Wightman will preside. Eagerly I looked for the means em- which he slept. For the last few years Col. J. B. Greaves, secretary of the tions which gives to the Superintendent a wide scope of anthority, and burdens him with weighty responsibilities, but we are persuaded that it is heat that he "Burleigh" writes from Washington to carry them into execution with our being